NEW YEAR BINGO

Heard a dog bark in another state	Decided to start with self	Wore a dress shirt and sweatpants	Participated in virtual happy hour	Forgot to mute
Asked, "Can you hear me now?"	Yawned on video	Visibly aligned	Saw a virtual background	Purposely shifted my mindset
Participated in a co-creation session	Realized the office was actually awesome	Karrikins	Got invited to a virtual coffee	Heard the phrase "new normal"
Saw terrible lighting on video	Had a pet or kid interruption	Worked in PJs	Intentionally spread optimism	Talked while on mute
Had a craving for office snacks	Created the space for quality conversations	Heard the phrase "going back"	Lost internet while in a meeting	Experienced sudden longing for a real whiteboard

NEW YEAR BINGO

2020 was full of unexpected twists and turns, and at Karrikins Group we were blown away at the resilience, courage, and commitment of our partners, clients, and communities.

As we move into 2021, we thought it would be fun to reflect on some of the new ways of working we're all taking into the new year and to see which ones are showing up after the holidays.

Our New Year Bingo game gives you the chance to keep an eye out for some (fun?) things that have a part in our everyday work experiences, together with six key Karrikins Group leadership ways of working that have a way of accelerating teams toward their goals.

Have fun playing, X out squares as you get them, and if you get a bingo* let us know – send a photo of your marked-up card to hello@karrikinsgroup.com, and we will send back a fun Karrikins Group prize to the first 20 bingo winners!

*A solid line across, down, or diagonally, with the center piece as a “freebie”
